FIVE NATIONS COMPARE HEALTH CARE DELIVERY AND ITS IMPACT IN THEIR COUNTRY

As part of the educational programming at the North American Primary Care Research Group (NAPCRG) Annual Meeting, an esteemed panel of presenters from the United States, Canada, The Netherlands, New Zealand, and Australia will discuss primary care delivery in their country, how its structure impacts primary care, its benefits and drawbacks.

WHO:

Hundreds of primary care researchers in attendance at the NAPCRG Annual Meeting are invited to attend and take part in this thought-provoking discussion.

Panelists:

Chris van Weel, MD, PhD, The Netherlands
William Hogg, MD, Canada
Felicity Goodyear-Smith, MBChB, New Zealand
Jane Gunn, MBBS, PhD, Australia
Bob Phillips, MD, MSPH, United States

WHAT: An Exploration of the Health Care Systems of Five NAPCRG Nations – What Can We Learn From Each Other?

WHEN: Tuesday, November 16; 9-10 a.m.

WHERE: Seattle, Wa. Westin Seattle Hotel. 1900 5th Avenue, Grand Ballroom 1 & 2 .

WHY: Health care structures and access to care vary greatly from country to country. This is a rare opportunity for representatives from different countries to compare and contrast how the structure of their country's health care delivery impacts primary care and what lessons can be learned from one another.
